Principal's Column

Hello, Giinagay, Hai,

End of Term Assembly

Thanks to everyone for coming along to our end of term assembly. It was a great day.

The highlights of course was the performance of the senior school band and the choir. They all did a great job of entertaining us all. It is great to see our performing arts developing in the school.

Gumbaynggirr Puppet Project

This week Elkie, Joey, Conan, Kobi and Tegan are participating in the Gumbaynggirr Puppet Project at Valla Beach Resort. The camp aims to culturally engage children, through the medium of puppetry, and develop creative works expressing elements of lore, language, dance, art and music.

Students will work with local Elders and leaders Michael Jarrett, Troy Robinson, Aunty Shaa Smith & Uncle Martin Ballangarry, along with Sue Wallace, Steve Coupe and Lucy Nias of the Sydney Puppet Theatre.

www.sydneypuppettheatre.iinet.net.au

Over the week they will develop and create short works of puppetry representing either contemporary or dreaming stories, this will be performed and filmed at Macksville Public School on Friday.

A huge thanks to Jenni Farrands and Rowena McGregor from the 3rd Space Mob, giving our students this opportunity.

ANZAC Day

ANZAC Day falls in the last week of the school holidays - Thursday 25 April. Scotts Head Public School students are invited to take part in the Dawn Service starting at Sunrise (6am). Our Senior Leaders will be leading the Service. Students need to wear full school uniform. Mrs B will be attending the Service representing the school.

Volunteers

Thank you to the many volunteers that give up time to come into school and help with activities such as canteen, listening to readers, general help in class and supporting on school trips and visits. We really do appreciate everything you do to support our students at Scotts Head. If there are any other parents who can offer any help to the school, please do not hesitate to contact your child's class teacher.

Have a great holiday break.
